Shelby Report - West – January, 2009 Ultimate Glove

The Clean Ones Ultimate Household Glove is a welcome addition to the supermarket glove section. Latex allergy is a serious concern among many consumers, who sometimes must avoid latex products altogether.

Clean Ones' latex-free, vinyl, dermatologist-recommended glove is the solution to the traditional latex household glove. It is lined with rayon for comfort. It also is treated with a natural antibacterial agent.

Available in sizes small, medium and large at a suggested retail of $2.99-$3.29.

All Clean Ones items are available in private label or branded versions.
